FRIENDS OF OLD TIME RADIO SCRIPT CONTEST

The 12th Annual Original Script-Writing contest is now open. Your half-hour script can be, but need not be, based on any recognizable classic radio program - this time a drama, but NOT a crime or cops and robbers show. The usual format includes short opening, middle and closing commercials, either for a product that existed then or one of your own imagining. The judges would prefer the story to be set in its original time period (unless science fiction).

Scripts must be ready to produce - 10 point type or larger, all sound cues included. Try to limit the size of the cast, although some actors can double in smaller parts. First prize is $200.00, and the script will be performed at our 2006 convention. Second prize is $100. The script will not be performed.

Scripts must be submitted by August 31, 2005 to Dave Zwengler, 319 Plymouth

Road, North Brunswick N.J. 08902 (732-940-7639). Three experienced judges from our steering committee will pick the winning scripts and suggestions for improvements will be sent to non-winners. If you want a primer on the preferred page format send an SASE to Mr. Zwengler.
